

REMARKS

This fourth supplemental amendment following the interview with the Examiner redrafts independent claims 79 and 100 and conforms depending claims therewith. Claim 149 has been redrafted and is in independent form. Claim 79 has been drafted to specifically conform to the subject matter found in the 1997 priority application, thereby avoiding many issues of prior art generated after that date. Inter alia, claim 79 includes the special emergency function that can send images to a preselected emergency number and the storage capability for moving images, both unprecedented in 1997.

Entry of the above amendment is requested along with further consideration of the amended claims.

Respectfully submitted,

Date: October 2, 2008
